CHANCELLOR IMPOSES $46 SURCHARGE

Chancellor Dumke yesterday announced a $46 surcharge will be imposed immediately on all students in the California State University and Colleges. For the San Bernardino campus this will mean an additional charge of $23 for both winter and spring quarters. Student fees, excluding parking and books, will be approximately $111.25 for winter and spring quarters.

To carry the system through next June 30, the chancellor also directed cuts of $5 million to be prorated among the 19 campuses, plus $675,000 in systemwide reductions. The San Bernardino campus' budget cuts will be about $93,000.

The chancellor also continued a systemwide freeze on purchases, hiring and promotions but gave campus presidents the authority to make critical exceptions. The actions are a result of Gov. Brown's cut in the budgets of all state agencies.

THEATRE PRODUCTION BEGINS THURSDAY

"The Knight of the Burning Pestle," a play that pokes fun at elements popular in Elizabethan romances, will open next week in the Theatre. Under the direction of Dr. Ronald Barnes, the production will begin at 8:15 p.m., Thursday-

Saturday, Nov. 12-14, and Tuesday-Saturday, Nov. 17-21. Admission is $3.50 general, $1.75 senior citizens and students.

Written by Francis Beaumont and John Fletcher in the early 1600s, the farce uses a play-within-a-play format, with one audience member joining the cast and two others adding their penny's worth from the sidelines.

The performers will be: Vicki Smith, Michael Gaylon, Carol Ann Harmer, Jeffrey Thistle, Tim Reilly, Dawna Gregory, Adrian Tafolla, John Higley, Dawn Peacock, Wendy Murphy, Shanon Rubin, Skip Smith, William Greeley, Constantinos Tellalis, Daisy Mercado, Don Gruber and Terry Swindell.

GUITARIST WILLIAM STANFORD TO PERFORM WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Classical guitarist William Stanford will perform at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday, in the Recital Hall. Admission for his program, which is part of the Music at Cal State Concert Series, is $5 general, $2 students.

Stanford is a lecturer in guitar here and an assistant professor of music at Chaffey College. He has music degrees from the University of Redlands and Cal State, Fullerton.

NO HOLIDAY

Veterans Day, Wednesday, is not a campus holiday. The time will be used, instead, as a floating holiday.

BUTLER NAMED ACTING CHIEF Arthur Butler has been named acting director of the Department of Public Safety (campus police) pending the end of the hiring freeze when the position can be posted. He replaces Mike Gomez, who left the college this week after six years as head of the department. Butler, who joined the department in 1971, has been assistant director for five years.

OUTSTANDING PROFESSOR NOMINATIONS REQUESTED Faculty, students and alumni are invited to nominate their favorite tenure-track professor for this year's Outstanding Professor Award.

Each nominee should be widely recognized for creative productions or scholarly achievements, be active in campus affairs and be a superlative teacher. Nomination forms are available in each department office, at the Library circulation desk, at the Student Union information desk, in the Dean of Students Office or at the AS Office. The deadline for submitting completed nomination forms to the Faculty Senate Office (AD 169) is Friday, Nov. 20.

BARBECUE PLANNED FOR VETERANS DAY To commemorate Veterans Day, the Veterans Club invites the community to a barbecue featuring short ribs, potato salad, baked beans and rolls at 11:00 a.m., Wednesday, on the Student Union Patio. The cost for the meal is $1.25.

ANNUAL BLOOD DRIVE WINNERS ANNOUNCED For the second year, Badger Hall has captured the prize as the dorm with the most residents donating blood in the annual CSCSB blood drive. The house will keep the plaque for another year and is $25 richer, due to an anonymous donation.

Dr. Richard Moss (Economics) won the faculty award of $15, and Val Pfeiffer (Academic Planning) received the staff prize of $15. The student cash award of $25, donated anonymously, went to Annette Benn.

The Dracula encouraging diners in the Commons to donate blood was Dell Yount, a drama student. A total of 104 people volunteered to donate; 81 pints were added to the campus blood reserve fund.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, Ext. 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE ART FACULTY TO EXHIBIT

The community is invited to a reception that will open the Community College Faculty Invitational Art Exhibit from 7-10 p.m. tomorrow in the Gallery.

Works of about 50 artists who teach at area community colleges will be on display through Nov. 25. A variety of media will be represented, including paintings, sculptures, ceramics, porcelain, jewelry, prints, stained glass, pen-and-ink drawings and photographs.

The art faculty from eight community colleges are participating: Victor Valley, Barstow, College of the Desert, Crafton Hills, Riverside City, San Bernardino Valley, Mount San Antonio and Chaffey.

Gallery hours are 9 a.m.-4 p.m., Monday-Friday; 7-9 p.m., Monday-Thursday; and 1-4 p.m., Saturday and Sunday.

SCHOLARSHIP CONCERT IN RECITAL HALL

Pianist Rena Zagha, a sophomore at UC, Riverside, will make her concert debut in the 35th annual Young Artist Scholarship Concert Saturday night at Cal State.

Her performance will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall. General admission is $3; student admission, $1.75.

Miss Zagha will perform selections by Toch, Beethoven, Chopin, Bach, Franck, Baldwin, Barber and Debussy.

She has soloed with the San Bernardino Symphony and has participated in many honors programs and Bach festivals. Currently, she is studying with Russell Baldwin. During her freshman year at UCR, she presented a full recital and was awarded a Regent's Scholarship and Chancellor's Performance Award.

The concert is sponsored by the San Bernardino Music Teachers' Assn. annually in an effort to provide an aspiring young local artist the opportunity for a concert debut and financial assistance in furthering educational and professional goals.

LECTURE GIVEN ON USE OF COMPUTERS IN EDUCATION

Faculty members and other interested persons are invited to attend a lecture on the instructional uses of microcomputers in education from 3-4 p.m., Thursday, in LC 500 North.

The speaker will be Dr. George H. Culp, assistant director of the Computation Center at the University of Texas at Austin. A nationally distinguished lecturer and author, he has been professionally involved with instructional computing for more than 13 years. The lecture is sponsored by the Computer Center and the School of Education.

ROOF COMPLETED

The new roof on the Administration Building has been completed. The remaining work to be done is to adjust the air flow to equalize the amount of air going into and out of rooms. A specialist has been contacted and is expected to complete the work by the end of next week. By that time, the heating and air-conditioning units should be operating.

DENTAL INSURANCE SIGN-UPS TODAY

Employees of CSCSB who wish to sign up for free dental insurance coverage may do so today from 3-4 p.m. in PS 10. Two other clinics for signing up are also scheduled: Monday, 11 a.m.-noon and Tuesday, 2-3 p.m., both in PS 10.

Personnel does not have enough staff to enroll employees on an individual basis, so everyone interested should attend one of these sessions. Persons unable to attend a clinic are urged to contact Sandra Jensen (Personnel), Ext. 7205.

To be eligible for dental insurance, an employee must work half-time or more for more than six months. Dependents' eligibility is the same as for health insurance.

The dental coverage represents an additional state contribution of one percent to the employees' benefit package, which includes health and life insurance. It was approved by the Legislature last June.

UNITED WAY DRIVE EXCEEDS ITS GOAL

CSCSB has exceeded its goal in the Arrowhead United Way fund drive. Faculty and staff contributed $8,907; the goal was $8,360. The college has participated in the campaign for more than 10 years.

Dr. Joseph Thomas, vice president for administration, expressed appreciation for the generosity of those who gave. The campus' success is especially encouraging since the overall Arrowhead United Way campaign is lagging behind schedule.

Although the final day for the official campaign on campus was Oct. 30, anyone wishing to donate may still do so by contacting Dr. Thomas' office, Ext. 7411.

NOTEWORTHY

Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Health Science and Human Ecology) was appointed by Chancellor Dumke to the Liaison Committee on Allied Health Programs of the Articulation Council of California.

Dr. Hal Hoverland (Administration) organized and chaired a workshop session on "Communication Skills for Business Students" at the Western Assn. of Collegiate Schools of Business Oct. 15 in Seattle.

PUBLICATIONS

Dr. Alexander Sokoloff (Biology) has an article he co-authored titled "Horned gena, an atavistic sex-linked dominant mutation in Tribolium Confusum" published in Heredity, Vol. 72.

Dr. David Lutz (Psychology) has an article published in Child Abuse and Neglect: The International Journal. The article, which he co-authored, is titled "Group Psychotherapy for Adult Women."

SPEAKING OUT

Dr. Richard Ackley (Academic Administration) spoke about national defense at a meeting of the San Bernardino Uptown Lions Club Nov. 10.

Dr. Hal Hoverland (Administration) presented a paper on "Management and Behavioral Analysis Concepts for Multinational Business" at the International Business Curriculum Planning Conference Oct. 14 at Seattle University.

Dr. Mireille Rydell (French) spoke at a meeting of the San Bernardino Uptown Lions Club Nov. 3. The title of her address was "The Compagnonage."

Dr. Edward M. White (English) gave the principle speech, "Writing Research and Teaching Practice," at the Oct. 21 meeting of the Los Angeles Basin Writing Council in Downey.
